Administrative Services Manager Kate Drayson provided the staff report summarizing multiple challenges with the current fiscal year schedule, including abbreviated review schedule, budget development occurring during the District's holiday closure, and alignment with other agency's fiscal year schedule, and the efficiencies that could be realized with a July to June fiscal year. Ms. Drayson also outlined the proposed implementation schedule if the fiscal year change is approved by the Board of Directors.

Director Kishimoto requested staff prepare a twelve month to twelve month comparison of the current and proposed fiscal years.

Director Riffle inquired if staff or the District Controller supports the change to the fiscal year.

General Manager Steve Abbors reported that District Controller Mike Foster was consulted regarding the fiscal year change, and he agrees that the change will be beneficial to the District.

Assistant General Manager Ana Ruiz reported that staff supports the fiscal year change, and any previous hesitation was due to other large ongoing projects, including the Vision Plan, Strategic Plan, etc.
