Midpen moves consideration of conservation easement at Mount Umunhum to December 13

Los Altos, CA— The Midpeninsula Regional Open Space District's board of directors has moved a vote on whether to enter into a conservation easement over 36 acres atop Mount Umunhum with the Amah Mutsun Tribal Band to the December 13 meeting. The agenda item was moved from the December 6 meeting following public request.

The conservation easement will be considered at a board of directors meeting on Wednesday, December 13 at 6pm at 330 Distel Circle, Los Altos, CA 94022. The board report for this item can be found at: https://www.openspace.org/sites/default/files/20171206_R-17-131.pdf. Public comments can be submitted to clerk@openspace.org

###

Created by voter initiative in 1972, the Midpeninsula Regional Open Space District has successfully protected more than 63,000 acres of open space. The District is a California special district governed by an elected board of directors. The District's mission is to acquire and preserve a regional greenbelt of open space land and agricultural land of regional significance in perpetuity, protect and restore the natural environment, and provide opportunities for ecologically sensitive public enjoyment and education.
