- Claims— There was $4069 for VRE rentals, travel for CAPIO conference - clarification? How is our travel and conference for the district doing overall? (on credit card list, first page)

CAPIO is the California Association of Public Information Officials. $155.00 was spent on a hotel deposit for public affairs staff to attend the annual conference. The remaining balance of the $4,069.47 was spent on supplies for the Volunteer Recognition Event, the bulk of which was for rental of tables, tents and chairs for the event.

Approximately 39% of the District's training and travel budget has been expended in the first seven months (58%) of the fiscal year.
