

What does a District Ranger do?

The Midpeninsula Regional Open Space District is looking for qualified Ranger candidates who are seeking a challenging and rewarding career. District Rangers are Generalist Rangers who perform a wide variety of functions. A brief list of day-to-day activities follows:

- District Rangers are sworn peace officers responsible for patrolling District Preserves and enforcing the District's regulations and pertinent local, State and Federal laws on District Preserves. Patrol may be by 4x4 truck, foot, ATV, electric motorcycle, e-mountain bike or bicycle.
- District Rangers respond to medical emergencies, wildland fires and search and rescue incidents.
- District Rangers help maintain the preserves by performing light maintenance tasks and resource management assignments.
- District Rangers engage the public through interpretative activities and community outreach.
